PLEASANT WORDS FROM ALL SECTIONS IN REGARD TO OUR
MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

It is very gratifying to us to receive so many letters from out of town patrons, commending the clothes they had purchased months before, and ordering more. We have succeeded in our efforts to reach the top, and it is now a conceded fact that we make the best clothing sold in Cincinnati.

Those people who have been attracted by the hurrah-big-advertising-buncombe style of business, have learned that they get poorer goods and pay more for them at those stores, and the result is a reaction in favor of honest methods of business.

Wilde's Tailor-Made Clothes are Made for Service.

★ YOU CAN DEPEND ON THEM. ★

If you purchase any thing from us that does not prove satisfactory, kindly inform us, and it will be made right.

Manager.

N. B.—A Discount will be given to Ministers of the Gospel and Theological Students.

New Orleans Mission.—The following paper, concerning the New Orleans Mission, was presented by T. H. Pearne, and, on motion, it was adopted:

We would respectfully and most cordially recommend to the favorable consideration of the authorities of the Woman's Home Missionary Society the locating of the "William Glenn Industrial Home for Illiterate Whites in the South," if in accordance with the conditions of the trust, in its great metropolis, New Orleans.

Bishop Warren says, "New Orleans is the greatest missionary field this side of China;" and we have heard with great interest the story of the work among the French-speaking and other peoples, as related to the Conference by Rev. W. P. McLaughlin. In view of the illiteracy, poverty, and spiritual need of its white population of two hundred thousand souls, and in view of the further fact that ours is the only Protestant Church laboring among its vast French-speaking population, we would most heartily indorse the locating here of the "Industrial Home," and, as pastors of the Cincinnati Conference, would do all in our power to assist the Home Missionary Society of our Churches in their efforts to this end.

The secretary of the Conference is hereby authorized and instructed to transmit a copy of the above to the proper authorities of the Woman's Home Missionary Society.

THOS. H. PEARNE,

* $1,368.32 of this amount is certified to as "supplies." There were other vouchers that did not designate whether cash or supplies.

Paid to Cranston & Stowe all the cash in the above items, save that for the Conference Claimants, which was paid to Rev. T. Collett, Treasurer of the Conference Board of Stewards, and seventy-five dollars ($75) paid out of Conference Educational Fund—fifty dollars ($50) to C. W. Ketcham, by order of Educational Society, and twenty-five dollars ($25) to J. F. Marlay, by order of Conference. Also, one hundred and fifty dollars ($150) paid Publishing Committee for the publication of the reports. This amount was charged to the societies, as follows: Missions, one hundred and four dollars ($104); Conference Claimants, thirteen dollars ($13); each of the other eleven causes above tabulated, three dollars ($3). I hold receipts for all these payments.

The entire receipts for the Conference Domestic Missionary Society was one dollar ($1), reported from the South Charleston charge, in the Springfield District. This amount would not warrant a separate column in the above table; and, as that Society is now resting, I have retained the dollar as seed for what should be a five thousand fold increase. The next Conference will doubtless plant this lonesome dollar.

For full details by charges, see Statistical Tables Nos. 1 and 2. The items of those tables and the details of this report have been carefully compared, and they exactly correspond.

SEPTEMBER 24, 1888.

JOHN PEARSON, CONFERENCE TREASURER.

As one of the Auditing Committee, I have examined the above accounts and the Treasurer's vouchers, and find that they agree.

CINCINNATI, October 3, 1888.

THOMAS LEE.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

THE American Bible Society, with its long history of faithful labor in spreading the Scriptures through the world, and upon which God and the Church have set their seal of approval, needs no words of commendation from us. It is with gratitude we note that there has been no diminution of gifts and toil, but a general advance along the whole line. The receipts from legacies, church collections, and other sources is more than eighty-six thousand dollars in excess of last year. But what is this, and all that is given each year to this great cause, compared to the vast sums spent for luxuries which leave no blessings behind?

The entire Bible is now translated and published in the Japanese language, so that now, for the first time, the common people can read the entire Bible in their own vernacular. Japan, in her wonderful and rapid strides toward Christian civilization will be greatly helped with the Bible in her hands. More than a million Bibles, and portions of the Bible have gone out. Many millions of families have been visited by its agents during the year. But still there are large portions of our own United States where the Bible is comparatively an unknown book. This Society is seeking to enter every home, and where its inmates hear not the living voice of the minister, to plant the silent preacher of the Gospel—the Word of God itself. It is with gratitude that the writer of this report is able to say that in the midst of a wicked army life he was brought to Jesus through the reading of a little ten-cent Testament, gratuitously distributed among the soldiers by one of the agents of this Society.

W. I. FEE, Chairman.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

THE Committee on Church Extension submits the following report:

Dr. Strong, in his little book, "Our Country," makes the point that the character of the first settlers of a country goes far to determine the character of that country for all time. We believe that the same thing is true of institutions. The earliest institutions of a community have much to do with forming the permanent character of that community. It makes a difference for all time as to whether a church or a saloon is first on the ground. Wherever we plant a church in a new settlement we in a measure pre-empt the ground for God, for truth, and for righteousness.

This is the principle on which largely the Church Extension Society has proceeded, and the good she has accomplished may be learned by a glance at the figures.

At the end of twenty-two years of active work this Society reports having received $3,187,724.13. With this she has aided 6,026 churches, worth, in the aggregate, $22,000,000, and furnishing sittings for about two millions of people.

But "the rapid growth of the country, the increase of populations, and the ever-swelling tide of emigration to the great West demand, by all the considerations that can influence Christian patriotism," an enhanced zeal in promoting an agency that has been of such immense usefulness in the past.

We urge upon all pastors and presiding elders the faithful use of the methods of the Discipline, that each year may see increased efficiency in this part of our Church work.

DIVORCE.

THE Committee on Divorce submits the following report:

The report of last year, printed in the Minutes of the Conference, elaborately and ably discussed the whole subject of marriage and divorce in its historical development and in its moral aspects, pre-sending interesting and instructive statistics relating to the subject in various countries. The principal conclusions reached were that divorce is more prevalent in the United States than in any other civilized nation in the world, and that "to multiply divorces and the causes for them tends to increase crimes against chastity, and to induce general depravation of morals."

These conclusions are sufficiently serious to awaken the deepest interest among all intelligent Christian people, and to induce them to unite in vigorous efforts to put an end to this fruitful and shameful source of evil. It is not necessary in this report to enter into further discussion of the subject, or to repeat the sad and sickening statistics heretofore printed; nor does it seem necessary to exhort one another to energetic action to extirpate this great and increasing evil. Enough for us to determine what we ought to do, what we can do, to wipe out this foul blot upon our civilization, and then resolve and attempt to do it like manly ministers of Jesus Christ. It will be something gained for the entire community to know that the greatest Church in this country stands unequivocally committed against unscriptural divorce, and that its ministry is a unit in fearlessly uttering its protest against this evil; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That as a Conference and as individual ministers we unswervingly stand by the Discipline of our Church, which declares that "no divorce except for adultery shall be regarded by the Church as lawful, and no minister shall solemnize marriage in any case where there is a divorced wife or husband living; but this rule shall not be applied to the innocent party to a divorce for the cause of adultery, nor to divorced parties seeking to be reunited in marriage.

2. That we will prudently, but emphatically, make known the attitude of our Church on this subject, and seek to create a healthy public sentiment, both by our public and private utterances.

EDUCATION.

THE educational institutions of Methodism are germane to every interest of the Church. These Oxfords of the New World must in a sense perpetuate the movement which had its origin in the Oxford of the Old. Out of these institutions in large measure must come the thoroughly furnished toilers of the future who will occupy our pulpits and pews, and will intelligently sustain our various connectional interests. Thus in advancing our literary institutions, we advance all. We deem it therefore the imperative duty of our ministers to recruit students for our schools, and to suggest these institutions as proper objects of their benefactions. We approve the action of the last General Conference, which practically deprecates the unnecessary multiplication of institutions, and, in harmony with the spirit of that action, we will concentrate our influence upon the Ohio Wesleyan University.

W. G. WILLIAMS, Secretary of Board of Trustees.

We note with pleasure the fidelity of the officers and professors, the advanced curriculum, improved scholarship, excellent discipline, success of co-education, and the gracious revival spirit crowning all. Encouraging as these tokens are, the institution is in a crisis, occasioned by the resignation of its President, which calls for redoubled prayer and effort on our part. Increased endowment and additional buildings, at the very least a college chapel, are indispensable. In Dr. Payne's removal to the Secretaryship of the Board of Education the University meets with a loss that may well be deplored. His administration of the affairs of the institution during the last thirteen years has been vigorous, enterprising, and firm. His loyalty to Methodism and his high ideals in the development of manly and womanly character have been widely recognized, and must command the respect of all. He leaves the University with the publicly expressed regrets of the students, the Faculty, the Board of Trustees, and the community at large.

The University is fortunate in having the services of Dr. McCabe, so tenderly esteemed and thoroughly capable, as acting President.

We recommend that the Bishop be requested to appoint the Rev. Lorenzo D. McCabe, D. D., LL. D., to the chair of Philosophy.

We recommend as visitors R. H. Rust, D. D., and the Rev. Wm. Macafee.

We recommend the election of Phineas P. Mast, Esq., for a term of five years to fill the vacancy in the Board of Trustees, caused by the expiration of his term.

We recommend to the Board the arrangement of post-graduate courses of study, leading to the degrees of A. M. and Ph. D., and the conferring of said degrees only upon graduates who have passed satisfactory examinations, and that the honorary degrees be conferred upon not more than one candidate per annum.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

We affectionately urge young men within the bounds of our Conference who may feel called to the ministry in our denomination to avail themselves of the facilities of one or the other of our admirable theological Schools.

We recommend as Visitors to the School of Theology, Boston University, the Rev. W. I. Fee, Rev. W. C. Helt, Ph. D., and Rev. J. P. Porter.

To Drew Theological Seminary, A. Lowrey, D. D., C. H. Haines, J. J. McCabe.

To Garrett Biblical Institute, J. F. Marlay, D. D., and James Murray.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We heartily commend the action of the last General Conference in making a new departure in regard to this organization, and broadening the scope of its operation.

The election of the Rev. C. H. Payne, D. D., LL. D., to the Secretaryship of this important Board is a guarantee of increased energy and efficiency in its management, and of a determination on the part of the General Conference to make the Board of Education, as it should be, one of the greatest interests of the Church. We recognize in Dr. Payne pre-eminent fitness for this important position, and pledge ourselves to heartily co-operate with him in his work.

The work of this Board, as outlined by the Corresponding Secretary, is second in importance to that of no society in our Church. Indeed, it stands vitally related to every department of Christian activity, and is essential to the perpetuity and greatness of Methodism. Therefore, Resolved, 1. That we commend the Board of Education to the cordial sympathy and support of all our members.

2. That we will endeavor to observe "Children's-day" in all our charges, and give to its exercises a specially educational character.

3. That we will take a public collection on Children's-day for the objects of the Board, in accordance with the requirements of the Discipline, and that we will use our influence to prevent this collection from being diverted to merely local objects.

SPRINGFIELD FEMALE COLLEGE.

The following communication was received from the Conference Commissioner in the case of the Springfield Female College:

To the Cincinnati Conference:

"The interests of the Cincinnati Annual Conference in the Springfield Female College are still held in abeyance by reason of a lease upon the property, which has several years to run. Therefore nothing has been done toward any adjustment thereof by your Commissioner.

L. F. VAN CLEVE."

We recommend the election of E. G. Dial, J. M. Deardorff, P. P. Mast, J. S. Shewalter, G. H. Phillips, and Robert Johnson

as Trustees, their terms to begin September 1, 1888, and continue one year.

FINANCE.

1. YOUR Committee on Finance begs leave to report that it feels grateful to a benign Providence for the great liberality that has been shown by our people towards the various benevolences of our Church. Yet we are compelled to say, still there is room for more improvement and greater zeal.

2. We earnestly recommend greater diligence and more faith in instructing our people to contribute as unto the Lord, knowing that he does not ask of us but his own—calling that lending, promising faithfully to pay it back again. He can pay it back in a thousand ways. He is sure to do it in some way. "All things come of Thee, and of thine own have we given thee."

3. We rejoice in the magnitude of our annual benevolent collections; yet we feel sad to think how small the whole amount is per member—alas! one cent and a quarter a week for missions in this highly-favored land!

4. We feel also our need of practicing economy and self-denial in our churches and families at large, that we may have no lack in meeting the demands of the entire Church of God—laying up in store on the first day of the week, as God has prospered us.

5. We persist that our book of Discipline, both in letter and spirit, be duly observed in all our benevolences, and that we act as faithful stewards over the bounties of God as those that must render account.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

THE importance and greatness of the work which the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society is doing can not be over-estimated. In twenty-one years the Society has expended more than two million dollars in the work of Christian education in the South. The advantages afforded have been enjoyed directly by more than one hundred thousand students, and indirectly by at least one million more. This, however, is only the beginning; as the years come and go, opportunities multiply, the field widens, and the Macedonian cry becomes louder and more earnest. The lands, school buildings, furniture, and libraries now owned by the Society are worth fully one million dollars. Last year twenty-two institutions, with 124 teachers and 4,506 students were maintained among the colored people, while fifteen institutions for the whites, having eighty teachers and 1,945 students, were aided.

All departments of educational work are being provided. Besides literary advantages, facilities are afforded for the study of medicine in Meharry Medical College, and for the study of theology in Gammon School of Theology, and in the Biblical departments of the other institutions.

Industrial schools have come to be an important part of the work of this Society. In these carpentry, blacksmithing, wagon-making, printing, agriculture, and other like industries are taught. The addition of "Southern Education" to the name of the Society by the last General Conference indicates both the adaptation of the Society to the changing condition of the work, and the enlargement of its sphere. Now the whites, as well as the blacks, are receiving much needed help in securing literary and practical education. This Society, for the work it has done, for the work it is now doing, and for the work it proposes to do, merits the hearty sympathy and liberal support of the entire Methodist Episcopal Church.

We recommend that collections be taken in all our societies for the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, and that each pastor make an earnest effort to secure at least the full amount apportioned to his charge.

Furthermore, we recommend that each pastor secure the "helps" provided by the Society—which will be furnished free upon application—examine them carefully, and use such as, in his judgment, will advance the interests of the Society.

MISSIONS.

YOUR Committee on Missions submits for your adoption the following report:

We are deeply impressed with the obligation resting upon the Church to faithfully execute the last command of the risen Lord: "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." Thankful for the conquests of the past, and regarding them as harbingers of greater conquests that await our conquering hosts, we send forth words of cheer along the lines wherever the battle is waged. The vantage-ground already gained gives promise of rapid progress and great achievements. The lines of the enemy are wavering and giving way on many fields.

The possibilities of the near future are immeasurable, and must be changed into realities. The Parent Missionary Society of our Church is the great leading agency through which the whole Church may mass its moral and spiritual forces, and precipitate them upon the unsaved multitudes of the whole world. It is the Church in battle array, marching on to certain victory. To this Society we pledge our sympathy, prayers, and earnest co-operation.

We deeply regret the decrease in the contributions of our people this year, and resolve to retrieve that loss during the coming year, and, if possible, surpass any record we have heretofore made. To accomplish this end we will hold concerts of prayer monthly, wherever practicable, circulate appropriate literature, and particularly the periodical known as The Gospel in All Lands, render our Sunday-school missionary societies more efficient, taking collections at least monthly, and secure, if possible, a contribution from every member and adherent of the Church for this sacred cause.

We send greetings to our General Missionary Committee, assuring them of our loyal support. The falling off in our collections must not be regarded as indicating a wavering interest in missionary work, but to causes merely temporary in their character, and that will not be likely to occur in the year to come. Let the General Committee take no backward step, but hold the ground already won, and plan for future victories.

We send greetings also to our noble missionaries in all lands where they toil, and assure them of our sympathy, our prayers and material support.

We rejoice in having with us during a part of our present session the heroic Bishop William Taylor, of Africa, and the zealous Bishop James M. Thoburn, of India. Their presence and words of wisdom have inspired us with fresh zeal in the cause of Christian missions.

We recognize the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Woman's Home Missionary Society as important auxiliaries to the Parent Society in both the foreign and home work, and will encourage their organization in all our congregations.

Respectfully submitted.

MORMONISM.

MORMONISM originated in this country, and it has reached its present dimensions within about fifty years. Its growth has been phenomenally rapid. It menaces the peace, morality, and safety of a quarter of a million dwellers in the inter-mountain Territories of the United States, including Utah, with an area equaling that of New York and Pennsylvania, and including also Idaho, Wyoming, New Mexico, Arizona, and a part of Colorado. Directly and indirectly, in all the Territories and amid the populations named, Mormonism exerts a baleful control.

The Mormon Church not only holds property running up into the millions, but each year it gathers of tithes from its deluded votaries half a million of dollars for its propagandism. The first Mormon settlements in Utah were made forty-one years ago. In the past two decades, by accessions of proselytes from Europe and America, it has reached its present magnitude. In 1880, upon one-third of its members was the leprous taint of polygamy.

Mormonism is a compact hierarchy. Its members acknowledge no higher earthly authority than the priesthood, culminating in the president and his two advisers. To this supreme ecclesiastical power the Mormons render a blind, implicit obedience. No well-drilled soldier obeys orders more promptly nor implicitly than the Mormon bows to edicts of his churchly superiors.

The latest and shrewdest move of Mormonism is the effort to gain Statehood for Utah. This once secured, the national government would be powerless to repress polygamy. This effort should, therefore, be watched and resisted with ceaseless, persistent care and courage. The disguise of its polygamous intent is so thin, so transparent, that non-Mormons living in those Territories regard it as a most perilous thing to permit Utah to become a State. Regardless of party, the non-Mormons there unite in a common, tireless effort to thwart the Statehood of Utah.

The constitution adopted for Utah declares that "bigamy and polygamy being considered incompatible with a republican form of government, each of them is hereby forbidden and declared a misdemeanor." On conviction of either of these misdemeanors, the penalty, under the new constitution, was, not exceeding six months' imprisonment and a fine of not more than one thousand dollars. Observe, here:

1. Bigamous and polygamous relations are "considered incompatible with a republican form of government." But by whom? Clearly, not by Mormons. If the Mormons had been really in earnest, they would have declared that "bigamy and polygamy are wholly and irreconcilably incompatible with a republican form of government," etc.

2. While the penalty might not exceed six months' imprisonment, nor one thousand dollars' fine, the imprisonment might be six hours or six days, and the fine might be six cents or six dollars.

3. In all other States of the Union bigamy and polygamy are felonies; in Utah misdemeanors.

4. Utah once admitted into the Union, this thin covering would be torn off, and polygamy would be reinstated, defying all interference from sister States, and from the Nation as well.

For nineteen years the different Christian Churches of the country have been planting schools and Churches in Utah, to instruct and evangelize these misguided people. There are 87 schools, 230 teachers, and 6,668 scholars. One-sixth of these are worked by the Methodist Episcopal Church. There are sixty-two churches, worth half a million of dollars, one-third of which belong to the Methodist Episcopal Church.

For the last thirty-seven years Congress has, from time to time, legislated against polygamy, and recently with marked effect. So well framed and executed were some of these laws that many indictments and convictions have followed. Since the passage of the Edmunds law of 1882 five hundred and forty-one were indicted for unlawful cohabitation, of whom two hundred and eighty-nine, or fifty-seven per cent, were convicted. The punishment of bigamous and polygamous felons which has taken place, the disfranchisement of polygamists, and the iron-clad test oath required before Mormons can be registered as voters, have been wise and effective measures. Then the dismantling of the Mormon Church, by annulling its charter, which charter the Mormon Legislature had made the organic law of Utah, and especially the sequestration of its property, have given Mormonism a stunning blow. Co-ordinately with this faithful enforcement of stringent laws, the gospel and the schools have put in their work with promising results. Already the purpling east denotes the dawn of Utah's redemption. Along the Wasatch range the morning is breaking. No longer is Salt Lake to be the Dead Sea of morals, and decency, and home, but the Galilee of Jesus' presence and power.

Leading the hosts of the teachers sent out by the Woman's Home Missionary Society and the preachers sent out by the Church, is our beloved Iliff. Their banners are full high advanced. From tent to tent, and from height to height, shout of victory answers to shout, and song of triumph echoes to song. At the late session of the Salt Lake Conference, presided over by Bishop Joyce, pentecost began, and like a tidal wave it is sweeping over that land. In different places the young men of Utah by scores are coming to Christ. Glory to God for this late and signal proof that the gospel is able to save sinners under the hardest and most forbidding conditions! We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That Mormonism, by voice and pen, from pulpit and press and rostrum, should continue to be agitated until this foul plague-spot of polygamy shall be removed.

Resolved, 2. That ceaseless opposition to the admission of Utah into the Union of States should be exerted in every form in which it may be practicably done.

Resolved, 3. That we will co-operate in this opposition and agitation with any and all parties, citizens, Christians, and Churches who will join their forces with ours against this monstrous horror—this deadly cancer upon the body politic.

Resolved, 4. That petitions, numerously signed, should be addressed to the Congress of the United States, asking for uniform and strict laws regulating marriage and divorce, alike applicable in all the States and Territories, provided that such laws shall be found practicable; and, if not, then such an amendment to the Constitution of the United States as would make such laws practicable, so that successive polygamy, by easy and repeated divorces, as is now practiced in some of the non-Mormon States, shall not be possible in any State or Territory of these United States.

PARSONAGES.

A GOOD parsonage is a means of grace to both pastor and people. With the pastor rests the responsibility, mainly, of having a parsonage in connection with every charge. In discharging this obligation the pastor labors for his own comfort and usefulness, the success of the Church, and the efficiency of those who succeed him. Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That where there is no parsonage it is wise for the pastor to use all legitimate means to secure one.

Resolved, 2. That we urge carefulness on the part of those who occupy parsonages to keep them in repair, to show thoughtfulness for their beauty and improvement, that our people may see that preachers are good tenants, and that a neglect of any or all of these on the part of pastors is one of the greatest obstacles in the way of increasing the number of parsonages.

Resolved, 3. That the pastors co-operate with the Committee on Parsonage and Furniture, that at least all heavy articles of furniture may be provided.

A decrease in the number of subscribers to the Review will be noticed. Your Committee would respectfully commend it to the ministry and laity as worthy of widest support, and indispensable to a full acquaintance with highest Methodist thought.

Our Church may well congratulate herself on the election of Dr. Mendenhall to the editorship of the Review. He ranks among her independent, thoughtful, prayerful, and profound students and most laborious workers. Patient and broad in his thinking, he has been voluminous in his writings. It would be unjust to compare him so early in his career with Dr. Whedon, after a life-time of practice and experience. Certainly his first two numbers of the Review compare favorably with the final two of Dr. Curry. He is a lover of, and believer in, the efficiency of the peculiarities of Methodism. And no Arminian will ever question the soundness of his Arminianism, and no Calvinist will ever glorify his greatness for any concessions to Calvinism.

We would also earnestly commend to the general public the Western Christian Advocate as a paper of many and varied excellences, and unsurpassed in this locality by any other religious journal. We are gratified to state that during the last four years, under the able editorship of Dr. J. H. Bayliss, the number of subscribers has been increased five thousand. And when we consider the usefulness of this paper as giving intelligence connectional, and concerning the great movements for world evangelization, and as placing before the popular mind notable events in their moral bearings, we could desire that the number of subscribers might be doubled during the ensuing quadrennium. Specially would we urge upon the head of every Methodist family within the bounds of the Cincinnati Conference the religious duty of enriching their homes with this invaluable periodical.

And since the Agents propose to give to the Superannuates' Fund twenty-five cents for each name over the number in 1888, we would also urge upon our pastors the advisability of renewed activity in the canvass for subscribers.

The Agents have also planned the celebration of the Centennial of the Book Concern in 1889, and we join with them in recommending that the pastors preach a sermon appropriate to the anniversary in January, and that the presiding elders devote a session of district conference to this interest, and that this Conference arrange for an anniversary to be held at its session in 1889.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

THE wide-spread Sabbath desecration in this day being due in a large measure to the aggressiveness of an imported infidelity, and the alarming indifference of a large portion of our native population as Christians and philanthropists, or even from the lower plane of humanitarianism, we can but deplore the fearful moral desolation that inevitably follows in its train. If this desecration were confined to conscienceless corporations, as railroads and great newspapers, and the hosts in cities who come to our shores with their anti-Sabbath and anti-Christian and anti-American ideas; if it were confined to those who trample on every thing sacred, it would not be so surprising and deplorable; but too many professedly Christian people, instead of being breakwaters to the onrolling and desolating flood, help to give it impulse by buying and reading secular papers, by unnecessary traveling on that day, by patronizing and encouraging camp-meetings whose gates are kept open on the Sabbath, thus turning this day of rest into one of excitement and turmoil. If the camp-meeting, as it is often alleged, can not be sustained as to its expenses in any other way than by encouraging a large influx through its gates on Sunday, then, in the judgment of your Committee, it had better become a thing of the past, that when we urge the sanctity of the Sabbath, we should be no longer met with the retort, "Physician, heal thyself."

As in every other form of evil, so in this, if we as Christians, and especially as Methodists, would help roll back this tide of Sabbath desecration our hands must be clean and our hearts pure.

Resolved, That as ministers of the gospel we will do all we can, in public and in private, to uphold and enforce the sanctity and necessity of the Sabbath; that we will set our faces against the opening of art halls and fairs, and all places of amusement and entertainment, on the Sabbath, as a violation of God's law; that we will discourage, by precept and example, all traveling on that day for convenience or pleasure, and that we recommend to those in charge of camp-meetings that they close the gates on the Sabbath.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL CAUSE.

WE, your Committee on Sunday-school Cause, report as follows:

1. The growth and usefulness of Sunday-school work for a number of years past is a source of congratulation to the Church. The number of conversions from the Sunday-school ranks reported for the quadrennium ending May 1, 1888, is something more than 410,000, for which we are devoutly thankful to Almighty God. But we are convinced that the power of the Sunday-school would be vastly enhanced if a hearty support could be secured from all our people. We urge, therefore, upon all our people the importance of co-operation with the Sunday-school workers throughout the Church.

2. That, inasmuch as great ignorance prevails in many quarters with reference to the doctrines of the Methodist Episcopal Church, we recommend that the superintendents make thorough use of the lessons from the Catechism, as published in the Sunday-school Journal and Lesson Leaves.

3. The Bible is the one text-book in the Sunday-school; therefore, while not underrating the value, or discarding the "best helps" in the preparation of the lesson, yet we recommend the use of the Bible in class-work.

4. We again renew our recommendation, that all our Sunday-school officials patronize our own publishing-houses in purchasing Sunday-school supplies, believing them to be better adapted to our work and purposes than any other; and that we will, as preachers, use our influence to further this end.

5. We recommend that in all our Churches Sunday-schools should be organized under the Discipline of our Church; and that the preacher in charge in all cases enforce the requirements of the Discipline in the organization and government of the schools.

6. We find that there is no uniform method in taking missionary collections in our schools; therefore, we urge that each school give at least one collection each month to the missionary cause.

7. While we recognize in the Sunday-school an agency of great power for good, yet, nevertheless, there is a possible evil associated with the Sunday-school as conducted in some parts. The children are not trained to esteem the regular services of the Church as paramount in importance, and hence a very small per cent of the children are found at the regular Church services. We therefore, with this note of warning, reiterate our declaration of one year ago, requesting all parents, Sunday-school superintendents, officers, and teachers to secure the attendance of all our scholars upon the public services of the sanctuary.

R. K. DEEM,

TEMPERANCE.

THE long and strong reports of your Committee on Temperance in former years preclude the necessity of any very extended deliverance at this time.

The Methodist Episcopal Church has ever been outspoken in its antagonism to the liquor-habit and to the liquor-traffic. In the constant and consistent utterances of its annual and General Conferences, as well as in the sermons of its preachers and the addresses of its bishops, it stands in the forefront of the battle for temperance reform. Whatever affects public morals is ever a proper subject for great ecclesiastical bodies to discuss. It is not the province, however, of your Committee to present an argument. As far as may be, we seek to formulate such views and convictions on the temperance question as shall secure the prompt indorsement of this Conference.

The pulpit we recognize to be a force which God intended to be educational and moral, as well as spiritual. Preaching may be needful in order to repentance. Agitation is essential in order to reform. There must be interest aroused and enlightenment afforded if there are ever to be deep convictions on great moral questions. No question, we believe, confronts the Church or the nation to-day more important than that of the prohibition of the importation, manufacture, and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage. How best to hasten the overthrow of the saloon-traffic, and to promote a temperance sentiment in society, in business, and in politics, which will assert the same moral supremacy over this crime against society as over theft or arson or murder, is the question which perplexes the wisest and best in our great ecclesiastical and legislative bodies alike.

We recognize the saloon power of this country as inimical to the best interests of the individual, the family, the Church, and the State. The liquor-saloon is the corrupter of our youth, the destroyer of the home, the enemy of the commonwealth. It is the foe of the Christian Sabbath, the club-house of infidelity, the hot-bed of anarchy, the recruiting station of the devil. It is the main supply of the bagnio, the poor-house, the lunatic asylum, the prison, and the gallows. Like the wooden horse of ancient Troy, it is the unconfessed yet uncompromising foe of every community in which it finds a place. We can not adequately characterize the vice and crime of the liquor-traffic as carried on under our very eyes, and during night as well as day. The entire saloon system we believe to be an evil. It is all an evil. It is an awful evil. It is always and everywhere such an evil. If we are to "abhor that which is evil," the liquor-saloon—low groggery and gilded palace of hell—must be abhorrent to the moral sense of all enlightened men. The brazen-faced defiance of public sentiment, and even legal enactment, which characterizes the liquor-dealer of to-day, must brand him as an outlaw, a social curse, the unrelenting enemy of his fellow-men.

The ministry of the Lord Jesus must ever take their stand for a great and abiding principle rather than for a mere temporizing public policy. There can be no question that the suppression of the liquor-traffic is properly in the field of politics. It has passed beyond the limits of mere moral suasion. In the very nature of the case, there can be no relief except by appropriate legislation, and by a faithful enforcement of legislative enactment by our officers of law. As ministers of Christ's gospel, we must do something more than "cordially sympathize with all wise and well-directed efforts for the promotion of temperance and morality." Even the United States Liquor-dealers' Protective Association affirms that they "strongly favor temperance, and earnestly oppose intemperance." As consistent and courageous Christian men, we must ever protest against any form of license which shall legalize the importation, manufacture, and sale of intoxicating beverages. We would not thus legalize polygamy, adultery, the social evil, or any other violation of the law of God. Our attitude must ever be that of opposition, or we ourselves become a party to the consequent crime. Whatever the mere politician may do, we, as preachers of righteousness, must honor the higher law of God. It is the conviction of many, we may be sure, as it was the candid confession of one (Republican): "I do not see how a minister can be anything else than a prohibitionist."

The revenue accruing from taxation of the liquor-traffic we believe to be not only a matter of doubtful public policy, but a most demoralizing feature in political finance. From the stand-point of political economy alone we conceive the Dow Law to be worse than a failure. Any legalization of the liquor-traffic our board of bishops has declared to be a sin. God gives no license to iniquity. No body—not even of Christian ministers—can rightly legalize wrong. We recognize every man's "personal liberty" to do right. We recognize no man's "personal liberty" to do wrong. If we have any right to protect our persons, our families, our property, we have, as a people, a right to protect ourselves against this blighting curse.

The leading issue of the great historic parties of to-day involves a financial question of only forty million dollars, while the issue of prohibition involves the amount of nine hundred million dollars annually. "We hold that the proper attitude of Christians toward this traffic is one of uncompromising opposition; and while we do not presume to dictate to our people as to their political affiliations, we do express the opinion that they should not permit themselves to be controlled by party organizations that are managed in the interest of the liquor-traffic." (Meth. Discipline, Appendix, ¶ 338.) The public sentiment of the country, we believe, is already far in advance of the platforms of the two great political parties. In a word, we believe there is enough temperance sentiment in the body politic to-day to put the liquor-traffic under the ban of prohibitory law.

It is not the purpose of your Committee to commit this Conference to the dominance of any political party. We make our stand for prohibition principles. Party affiliation, we repeat, each of us will determine for himself. Inasmuch as this question is now in the field of political discussion and decision, we believe that we should not only lend our influence, but cast our vote wherever practicable against this modern "abomination of desolation." Confronted constantly, as we are, by vast liquor monopolies seeking to control not only our great legislative bodies, but also our executives, and even our courts of law, it ill becomes us to make any concessions whatever to the power of beer in city, county, or commonwealth.

The action of the Cincinnati jury in repudiating law and perjuring themselves—without rebuke or censure from the court—is no less than anarchy in the jury-box itself. The saloon-keepers' combination to resist obedience to law is as real a rebellion in 1888 as was the firing on Fort Sumter in 1861. As such it calls for our unqualified condemnation.

Your Committee rejoice in the repeal by the last Legislature of that portion of the Dow Law which authorized the legalization of the liquor-traffic on the Lord's-day. We are emphatic in our commendation of every agency aiming to educate the moral sense of the community. We shall welcome the day when scientific temperance shall be really taught in our public schools, and we urge that due place be given to the quarterly temperance lesson in our Sunday-schools. We favor the organization of "Bands of Hope" among the children, and of temperance societies among adults. We note that the violation of temperance principles in our new book of Discipline is no longer to be characterized as merely "imprudent and unchristian conduct," but as an immorality, a sin, a vice, and a crime.

Finally, we shall hail the day when, in the language of one of our bishops, "The battle for prohibition shall be pitched upon ground broad enough for all friends of the cause to stand upon, and where they can fight under a leadership strong enough to unite all available forces."

We recommend that the Bishop appoint Rev. M. Dustin, D. D., Temperance Agent of our Conference.

TRACT CAUSE.

WHEREAS, The distribution of tracts among the irreligious has led many to Christ; and

WHEREAS, The report of the Committee on Tract Cause last year embodies the sentiments of your Committee,—

Resolved, That we recommend to the members of the Cincinnati Conference increased effort in the matter of collections for the Tract Cause; and, in order to this end, the observance of "Good-tidings

Day," as appointed by the Sunday-school Union and Tract Society jointly, is advised. Also, it is advised that the collections of that day be divided equally between the two causes, and that the portion belonging to the Tract Society be remitted as early as possible, in case a return of the disciplinary half of the amount in tracts is desired.

SPECIAL REPORTS.

REPORT ON ARMY CHAPLAINS.

WHEREAS, There are one hundred and thirty-five posts and stations, as shown by the United States Army Register for 1888, and but thirty-four chaplains provided for all,—

Resolved, 1. That we believe it to be the duty of the government, in order to promote morality and religion in the army, to provide chaplains in suitable numbers and of suitable qualifications for the army, and we respectfully recommend to Congress that provision be made by law for a corps of at least one hundred chaplains for the army, on the general plan of the medical corps now existing in the army; we believe that the need for this corps of chaplains is urgent and should be met without delay.

2. That we also recommend that due provision be made by law for securing suitable ministers for the corps of chaplains by examination of candidates by army chaplains experienced in the needs and requirements of the military service; we believe that no chaplain should be appointed by the President except upon the advice of such examiners.

LETTER FROM REV. M. KAUFFMAN.

SPRINGFIELD, September 11, 1888.

TO BRETHREN A. MILLER, M. D., W. HERR, AND M. DUSTIN, in behalf of the Cincinnati Conference, in session at Jamestown, O. :

DEAR BRETHREN,—Your kind communication conveying to me the sympathy of all the brethren of the Conference, as well as your own, has just been received, and I hasten to make a word of reply.

Such expressions of regard are always highly appreciated by me; this is especially so when coming from the members of the Cincinnati Conference—a body with whom I have been so long and pleasantly associated, from whom I have received so many favors, honors, and manifestations of respect, and whom I regard as of the very finest specimens of American citizens, and of Christian gentlemen and brethren.

I can say that my afflictions are tempered with great mercy, and that I enjoy, upon the whole, a pleasant evening of life. So satisfied am I in respect to the past, that had I to choose a second life career it would be in every respect the same, only more earnest and faithful.

I thank you, brethren of the Committee, and, through you, the Conference, for your kindness and sympathy.

I may say, in conclusion, that as the past is pleasant, so the future is bright. I expect to meet you all by and by, through our exalted Savior, on the other shore. Fraternally, M. KAUFFMAN.

LETTER FROM REV. E. M. COLE.

FEESBURG, O., September 27, 1888.

DEAR BRETHREN,—I am glad you thought so much of me as to address me. My health is poor, but God keeps me in quietness and peace. I am just waiting the call of the Master. I am ready to go when the dear Lord calls. God bless you all. This letter is written by my granddaughter, Mary E. Cole. I am, as ever, your brother in Christ. Be sure I shall ever feel grateful for your kindness in the past. E. M. COLE.

A NOTE FROM REV. J. VERITY.

TO THE SECRETARY, Cincinnati Conference:

DEAR BROTHER,—I am very grateful to my brethren for the kind invitation they gave me to write a report of my work for the Minutes during the time I have been laboring as an evangelist. I regret to say that I have been so pressed with work since the adjournment of our Conference, that I have not had time to write such a report. If Providence permits, I will have one ready for the ensuing Conference.

Yours fraternally,

J. VERITY.

MEMOIRS

REV. JAMES S. PEREGRINE.

OUR brother, JAMES S. PEREGRINE, was born in Shropshire, England September 17, 1819, and died in Winona, Minnesota, February 24, 1888. He was the son of a Welsh Presbyterian minister, who, besides being a pastor, was also a teacher. With conscientious zeal he gave his son what was at that time a liberal education, which availed him in his after life. In 1828 the family immigrated to the United States, and settled in Ohio at, or near, Chillicothe. Here James sought and found the Savior, and became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1839 he was happily married to Miss Mary E., daughter of Dr. Dunlap, of Chillicothe, by whom were born to him six children. Five of these passed away from earth before their father, leaving only Dr. J. L. Peregrine, of Winona, Minn., to survive him. Soon after his conversion Brother Peregrine was licensed as a local preacher, in which office he was so useful that he felt called to abandon his successful business and enter upon a larger sphere. In 1849 he was admitted on trial into the traveling connection in the Ohio Conference, and appointed to Miami Circuit, on which he labored successfully for two years. His subsequent appointments were as follows: 1850, Lockland Circuit; 1851-2, Salem (Cincinnati Conference); 1853-4, Amelia Circuit; 1855, Lockland, Station; 1856, Ladies' Home Mission; 1857, East Pearl Street; 1858-9, Ripley; from which place he transferred to the Minnesota Conference, and was stationed at Jackson Street, St. Paul, in 1860; 1861, Monticello, Minn.; 1862-3, Central Church, Winona; 1864, presiding elder, Winona District; 1865-6, supernumerary; 1867, retransferred to the Cincinnati Conference, and stationed at Mt. Washington, where he remained for the year 1868; 1869, Gosben; 1870, his health having failed, he became supernumerary and returned to his home in Minnesota. In 1877 he was granted a place on the superannuated list, and retained that relation until his death. While stationed at Lockland he was sorely bereft by the death, after a lingering illness, of his most excellent and devoted wife. Subsequently he married Miss Rebecca DeGraw, an accomplished Christian lady of Cincinnati. After a comparatively brief period, Death also claimed her for his own. After this he married a lovely girl in the person of Miss Naomi Gaddis, of Ripley, while he was pastor at that place. Only one brief year had passed when this precious child of God was called from his side, and he was again left alone. Soon after his removal to Minnesota in 1860, he was married to a lady who became an excellent helpmate to him for a period of about twenty years. The maiden name of this lady is not known to your committee. After her death he was married to Mrs. Abbie Magill, of LaCrosse, Wis., who survives him. Brother Peregrine became a confirmed invalid and lingered through several weary years of both mental and physical infirmity, until the time of his release from earth and suffering.

He was a man of warm affection and ardent friendship—was genial as a companion and colleague, but exceedingly sensitive, and at times inclined to great depression and despondency, which seemed to intensify with each visitation of domestic affliction and bereavement. These had become sadly frequent in his stricken home. He was a man of sterling integrity, good practical judgment, and in every way a Christian gentleman. He possessed a good practical mind, refined tastes, and preaching ability equal to the average of his day. He was sound in theology, clear in his perceptions, and loyal to the Church. His prudence and tender sympathies contributed to render him a useful and beloved pastor. God graciously sustained him during his tedious passage through the dark valley to that land where there is no night, and his funeral was largely attended by the best people of Winona.

J. F. CONREY,
L. F. VAN CLEVE.

REV. STEPHEN F. CONREY.

STEPHEN F. CONREY was born in Butler County, O., August 28, 1815, and died at his residence in Urbana, O., July 4, 1888, at the age of seventy-two years, ten months, and six days. His father and mother, Jonathan and Mary Conrey, were Methodists of the best type, and the large family of children followed them zealously in the service of God, and loyally in membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church. Brother Conrey's boyhood days were spent in a rural neighborhood in the quiet pursuits of farm life. One who knew him intimately during that period says that he was exceptionally thoughtful and upright throughout his entire childhood and youth, and that he never exhibited the evidences of depravity common to the sons of Adam. By availing himself of such educational advantages as offered themselves in his vicinity, he acquired a good English education, and for a time was himself a teacher. A prayer-meeting maintained by the Methodists of the neighborhood, in the intervals of preaching, resulted, in the Summer of 1833, in a revival, in which between thirty and forty persons were converted. Of these, one was the subject of this memoir, and another was his nephew, the Rev. J. F. Conrey, both of whom were received into the Church by the Rev. Burroughs Westlake, then preacher in charge of the old Miami Circuit. This was when Stephen was eighteen years of age. Two years later he was licensed to preach by the quarterly conference of the same circuit, and recommended to the Ohio Annual Conference as a suitable person to be admitted on probation in that body. This was under the presiding eldership of the Rev. Wm. Simmons. Having been admitted as a probationer, he immediately assumed the duties of the traveling ministry, although but twenty years of age. Two years later, in 1837, he was ordained deacon in Xenia, O., by Bishop Roberts, and in 1839, in Cincinnati, he was ordained elder by Bishop Soule. On the 22d of May, 1839, he was united in marriage, by the Rev. Joseph McDowell, to Miss Margaret Hunsaker, who faithfully and cheerfully shared with him the privations and toils of the itinerant's life until God called him away from her to his reward. She, with their only remaining son, was permitted to minister to him in his last hours, and to be with him as he stepped across the, to him, narrow boundary between earth and heaven. James, their only other child, died triumphantly in early manhood several years ago.

Brother Conrey's first appointment was to the Greenville Circuit, to which he was assigned in 1835. His circuits up to 1847 were as follows: Eaton, Germantown, Wilmington, and Union, each one year; Troy, two years; then a second pastorate of one year on Eaton Circuit; Milford, one year; Franklinton, two years; and Mechanicsburg, one year. In 1847 he took a supernumerary relation on account of impaired health. In 1848-9 he was appointed to South Charleston Station, and to Troy Station in 1850. In 1851 he was appointed presiding elder of Maysville District, Ky., which was then within the bounds of the Ohio Conference. Here he remained four years. During this period the Kentucky Conference was organized, and as Brother Conrey was specially adapted to the work in that State by reason of his peaceful and prudent handling of the slavery question, he was retained within its territory. In 1855-6 he occupied Covington Station, now Union Church; in 1857-8, Newport and Brooklyn; Germantown station in 1859; and Augusta Circuit in 1860. The excitement which just preceded the war was now at its height, and at Brother Conrey's own request he was transferred to the Cincinnati Conference. Here he was appointed to Mechanicsburg, at the invitation of the brethren there, just as it was organized into a station. Then followed Middletown, Franklin, Waynesville, Union, Oldtown, Jamestown, Cedarville, and King's Creek. In 1877 he was granted a supernumerary relation, which was changed to superannuated in 1881.

Brother Conrey's work in the pastorate was successful. At several of his appointments he had extensive and permanent revivals; and everywhere the Church grew in numbers, unity, spirituality, and strength, under his ministry. His acceptability is indicated by the number of places which he served for two terms as pastor. He was universally beloved by his parishioners; and when divisions occurred among brethren, he was a peacemaker, with sufficient influence to unite them. By private study after he entered the ranks of the itinerancy, he acquired a fair knowledge of Latin, and some acquaintance with Greek. Possessed of a good memory, he retained even to old age whatever he once learned. He loved the Bible, studied it well, and became familiar with its language and sacred teachings. He became skilled in the current theology of his day by a careful study of standard Methodist authors. His mind was clear, penetrating, and broad, enabling him to comprehend a system of theology in all its details and as a whole. As a preacher his sermons were scholarly in conception, yet practical; and while he was always effective in the pulpit, he sometimes wondrously moved and lifted his audience. Nor was his power over a congregation dependent upon any purpose of oratorical effect. Its explanation may be found in the language applied to Peter in the Acts of the Apostles: "While he yet spake . . . the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word." As might be expected, therefore, he had his share of ministerial honors and responsibilities, having been for one term presiding elder, for some years secretary of the Kentucky Conference, and a delegate to the General Conference at Indianapolis in 1856.

Brother Conrey was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith. There was a saintliness in his character which impressed all who knew him.

The long continued and intense anguish which he endured did not produce any distortion of countenance, but the patience of his spirit through it all, and the profound faith in God and joy in the Holy Ghost which filled his soul, gave to his striking features an expression of glad submission and a look of heavenly calm. Often when tortured with pain he said he feared he was not sufficiently grateful for all God's mercies to him. He sincerely accepted whatever God sent as best for himself, and rejoiced that in all things the Lord's will was done. One of his discriminating parishioners used to say, that if he was called upon to point out a good man, he would name Stephen F. Conrey. This is the testimony of all who knew him as pastor in his various fields of labor. It was his aim in life to be holy. At the last prayer-meeting he ever attended, he said, while speaking of his life work: "I have tried to be a good man." A noble character and a conscious rectitude of purpose, together with the esteem of all who knew him, were the earthly reward of his efforts. No record of Brother Conrey's life would be complete without a reference to his manner of pronouncing the benediction, which was such as to attract universal attention. Reverence, solemnity, awe, adoration, and benignity mingled in the tones of his voice, and produced that peculiar impressiveness of manner which none could fail to observe as he uttered the familiar apostolic words. To him it was not a form. He seemed to feel that he was pronouncing God's blessing upon the people by divine authority when he spoke. The effect upon the congregation was thrilling, and none who bowed their heads beneath his outstretched hands ever failed to realize that God did set the crown of his benediction upon the hearts of the worshipers.

He maintained his interest in every thing pertaining to the Church to the very end. He seldom listened to a sermon without noticing, besides the practical, some other interesting point, which it was his habit to make the subject of conversation with the preacher. Sometimes it would be the pronouncement of a word, or the turn of a sentence; sometimes a point in Bible geography or history or interpretation, or a subtle question in speculative theology; and all this without being in the unfavorable sense critical, and in addition to the warmest expressions of appreciation for the practical and evangelical elements of the discourse. He was an appreciative hearer, and in sympathy with the minister's work, and profoundly anxious for the welfare of the Church. Even the wanderings of his mind in his last illness showed that he prized the courts of Zion above his chief joy.

His departure was not unexpected to him. He began making arrangements for the final scene soon after conference last September. Later he made very complete arrangements, even to the selection of the casket in which he was to be buried. Death had no terrors for him; hence he could do all this without a tremor. His sick-room was a very bethel to all who entered it; and the couch on which he breathed his last was to him a scene of holy joy and blissful expectations. He loved, when he opened his eyes, to see his wife and son at his side, and their constant and faithful ministrations were most grateful to him. The closing hours were not given up to unavailing grief; it was a Christian home, and his a Christian's death. It was the writer's precious privilege to be with him much during his last illness. He seldom spoke of the results of his work, and never except in terms indicative of the greatest humility; yet he often said that he was so glad that his life had been spent in trying to benefit the world; therefore his life, as he looked back over it, gave him great satisfaction. One day he said with deep emotion: "I have very little of this world's goods, but I think I am the richest man in Urbana."

There was only one thing for which he desired that prayer should be offered, and that was that when the end came the Lord would find him ready. He wanted no cloud to hide the face of God at the last. When told that God would never forsake him, but that he that had begun the good work in him would perform it until the day of Jesus Christ, for he is faithful that promised, he replied: "I have preached the promises to others in their seasons of affliction, and it would not do to doubt them now." At another time he said: "I have tried as hard as any man ever did to get a clear, definite, and correct understanding of the plan of salvation; yes, and I have experienced the blessedness of it in my heart." Again he said: "I have tried, first, to find the true foundation; and, second, to build on it." It is rare to find such a combination of humility with superiority both of mind and heart. On Monday night, when we all thought that he was about to cross over, we were sitting in silence about his bed, when he said: "What would the wealth of Vanderbilt be to me now?" I said: "There is a better riches than his." "Yes," he replied, "the unsearchable riches of Christ." And then after a pause he added: "To me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach the unsearchable riches of Christ." The day before he fell asleep, when a neighbor entered the room he recognized her, but being too feeble to speak he reverently pointed heavenward. When on the last evening of his earthly existence he had entirely lost the power to speak, he yet gave evidence that he recognized voices and the words spoken. Precious passages of Scripture and verses of hymns quoted were received with waving of hands, as though in token of happiness and victory. Of him it may be truthfully said that he laid his head on Jesus' breast, and breathed his life out sweetly there.

His language during his closing days was joyous and triumphant. But had he uttered no word, a life so free from blemish, and so full of holy endeavor and the fruit of the Spirit, would be the best testimony, both to the power of religion and his hopes for the future. To those who loved and watched him he did not seem to die; yet he was not caught up, like Elijah, in a chariot of fire. Nor was he permitted like Moses, so far as we know, to ascend any Mount of Vision, whence he could look over into the Land of Promise, and see beforehand the beauties and glories of that

"Sweet and blessed country That eager hearts expect;"

but rather may it be said of him as of Enoch: "He walked with God, and he was not; for God took him." His path, like that of all the just, shone more and more unto the perfect day. He was a perfect and an upright man, and his end was peace.

"O may I triumph so,
When all my warfare's past,
And dying find my latest foe
Under my feet at last!"

C. W. RISHELL.

REV. M. P. GADDIS, SR.

MAXWELL PIERSON GADDIS, for the last thirty-six years a member of Cincinnati Conference, and for the sixteen years preceding, of the Ohio—in all fifty-two years—at his late residence, Oakwood, Dayton, O., passed peacefully to his heavenly rest, Saturday, September 8, 1888, at 8.30 P. M. After long struggling with growing bodily infirmities, which, more or less severely, had covered long years of sickness and suffering,

"The weary wheels of life stood still."

Brother Gaddis was born in Pennsylvania, September 9, 1811. Had he died Sunday, instead of Saturday, he would have been exactly seventy-seven years old.

He was of Irish descent. Both his parents were natives of County Down, Province of Ulster, Ireland. He was the youngest of thirteen children. There were ten boys and three girls. Five of his brothers and two of his sisters were born in Ireland. Two of them died in infancy and were buried in Ireland. Two died in the passage to this land and were buried in the Atlantic.

In his boyhood, Brother Gaddis was the subject of frequent and deep convictions of sin and its awful penalty. Several remarkable providential escapes from sudden death greatly intensified his convictions. Early in 1817 his parents removed to Ohio, and settled on Eagle Creek, near Maysville, Ky. In 1824, when he was scarcely thirteen years of age, he was converted at a camp-meeting, in Mason County, Ky., about six miles from Maysville. After weary hours of pungent sorrow for sin, and of earnest seeking for deliverance, in which he had been forward to the altar for prayers, and had become discouraged and given it up, and gone to his tent and to his couch, where, alone, he had reflected and grieved over his lost condition, he arose, dressed himself, and went again to the altar, the prayer service being still continued. His brother David was soon at his side, aiding him in seeking Christ. Thus he describes his conversion: "Then I heard David remark: 'O, my dear brother Maxwell, remember how long mother has prayed for your conversion, and how glad she would be if the Lord would make you his child at this meeting. I have no doubt she is praying for you now; and then remember the Church is praying, and your bleeding Savior is pleading your cause before the throne of God on high.

'The Father hears him pray,
His dear anointed one;
He can not turn away
The presence of his Son.'

During all my agony up to that moment I had never thought of the tears or prayers of my affectionate mother. These now all passed in review before me. I felt at that moment that there was efficacy in prayer, and there was hope for my soul. I then looked to the cross by faith, and my burden was gone. The Sun of righteousness shined into my heart. I arose and shouted aloud for joy, and continued praising God until the dawning of the morning. . . . It was at the solemn and impressive hour of midnight when my chains were severed."

Soon after his conversion Mr. Gaddis was strongly called to the Christian ministry. This was a usual and marked characteristic of the ministers of those early times. He thus states it: "It was not long after I had received a change of heart until I felt that I was inwardly moved by the Holy Ghost to preach the gospel. I tried to banish this conviction from my mind every way that I could, but it was strengthened every year."

The usual method of that period was to license the person who believed himself called to preach, to exhort. Brother Gaddis took the course then customary. August 1, 1830, Elijah H. Field, the preacher in charge, gave Brother Gaddis a license to exhort, the society having recommended it. Two weeks later, when the quarterly conference came on, the license was renewed, thus validating it for a year, and thus from year to year.

July 19, 1834, by mistake he was licensed as a local preacher by the quarterly conference of West Union Circuit, John Ferree, the presiding elder. February 14, 1835, he was really licensed as a local preacher, Leroy Swarmstedt presiding elder. In 1835 he traveled the West Union Circuit as a supply. Rev. John A. Baughman was his colleague. In 1836 he was received on trial into the Ohio Conference, and appointed to White Oak Circuit, Clermont County. Revivals prevailed. Many were converted. In 1837 he was appointed to West Chester Circuit, its eastern and western extremes being Montgomery, near Milford, and Hamilton, Butler County. Here also gracious and extensive revivals followed. In 1838 he was appointed to Fulton Station, McKendree, Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1839 and 1840 his work was "Eastern Charge," Cincinnati, including Asbury, McKendree, and Wesley Chapel. E. W. Selon was his senior colleague and the preacher in charge. The second year three preachers were appointed—Selon, Gaddis, and Isaac Ebbert. Here he entered into a new covenant with God. A new consecration was made. He rose to a higher plane of Christian living. He enjoyed the blessing of perfect love. The witness came into his soul distinct and clear and strong. Under their labors that year, assisted by John Newland Maffitt, eight hundred were added to the Church. Five hundred were admitted into full connection in one day. One thousand persons received the sacrament on one Tuesday evening. In 1841 and 1842 he was agent of the Worthington Female Seminary and Asbury Academy, West Virginia. In 1843, Greenfield; 1844 and 1845, Hillsboro; 1846, Bethel Chapel, Cincinnati; 1847, Cincinnati Wesleyan College; 1848, Morris Chapel, William Herr his senior colleague. Here he built St. John's Church. 1849 and '50, 1851 and '52, he was at Columbia Street Charge, Springfield, Ohio. 1852-54 he was stationed at Greene Street, Piqua. In this charge Brother Gaddis was greatly successful. Three hundred and eighty were received on trial. This was the last charge he filled for ten years. He was made supernumerary. In 1864 he was made effective, and for three years he was pastor of Yellow Springs. In 1867 he was pastor of Gaddis Chapel, Sears Street, Dayton. In 1868 and '69 he was agent of the Preachers' Relief Society.

For these twenty-five years our brother was effective, all the time carrying about a feeble, sickly body, yet full of zeal and power—a marvel of energy and success. The other twenty-seven years were chiefly spent in the supernumerary relation. He was a deeply spiritual man. His preaching was somewhat flowery, but earnest, convincing, and persuasive, and largely emotional. He was a great soul-winner. Thousands were won to Christ under his ministry.

May 1, 1849, Brother Gaddis was united in marriage to Miss Josephine Parrott, eldest daughter of Thomas Parrott, Esq., of Dayton, O. Nine children were born to them, two of whom died in their infancy. Josephine died after reaching adult age, a few years since. Three sons and three daughters remain. Eugene, the youngest son, has become a minister. He has entered the Conference in which his father for so long was a member.

Brother Gaddis was a somewhat fluent and extensive writer and author. His faithful pen added valuable contributions to the religious literature of his times. His chief works are: "Footprints of an Itinerant," "Sacred Hour," "Brief Recollections of George W. Walker," "Conversion of a Skeptic," "Select and Popular Sermons," "Sainly Women," and "Old-time Memories." These books are able and interesting. They have had a large circulation. They have been blest of God to the conversion of many, and to the comfort and edification of large numbers. As historical repertories they are invaluable. For many years, since Brother Gaddis ceased his active ministry, these books have been preaching truth and leading souls into holy and useful lives.

For a year or two our brother's health has rapidly declined. He has been a prisoner of the Lord for many months past. He lived in the Spirit. He died in the peace of God which passeth all understanding.

Two weeks ago to-day his nephew, Rev. John W. Gaddis, visited him. He spoke of his condition. He believed his end was near. Said he would greatly love to attend the Conference and once more see the brethren. But he knew he would not be able. He said: "Give them all my love. Tell them I will meet them in a better world." He said: "I have greatly enjoyed the work of the ministry and the preaching of the gospel of Jesus." He said he was thankful that he had been called to the ministry, and that God had given him souls for his hire and seals of his calling. He spoke of his personal experience. While he had been a great sufferer confined to his room, yet Christ had given him sufficient grace. "Though I can not," said he,

"understand the affliction, yet it is all right and all is well." When his nephew passed out of the room he called to him, and lifting his right hand, he said: "John, hold the banner up high!"

Blessed man of God! How fitting the hour of his departure! It was at the end of the earthly week. The light of the closing Saturday was curtained off by God's own hand. The next dawn was that of the earthly Sabbath. But to him the weary week of life was ending. Its last day had closed. The dawn of the eternal Sabbath was near.

Brother Gaddis wrote of his itinerant footprints among men. To-day in the general assembly of the saints his feet press the golden pavements of the New Jerusalem. His "Recollections of George W. Walker" are printed in the book he has left. In the eternal home he sees his friend face to face, and reviews their mutual earthly fellowship. He wrote of "The Sacred Hour." He has passed to that happier, better state, where hours and days are no longer needed; where

"A day without night
He will spend in God's sight,
And eternity seem as a day."

In the preface to his "Footprints," dated 1854, he says: "Upwards of fifty of Zion's watchmen have died at their posts in the Ohio and Cincinnati Conferences since I began the work of the ministry. I was intimately acquainted with nearly all of them, and some of them I loved most tenderly."

Since then one hundred and ten from this Conference, and half as many more from the Ohio—in all over two hundred—have passed over. What a meeting they have already had on the other shore! Collins and Kobler; Walker, whom he so admired; Raper, so wise and good; Finley, so brave, and Mitchell, and Marlay, and Swormstedt, and Fowble, and Wambaugh, and Weakley, and Wright, and Warnock, and so many more—a larger company than this Conference, who mingle our tears over his removal.

Blessed reunion! Wonderful meeting! Dear departed brother, we have loved thee here; we shall meet thee there! We have wrought together here; we shall meet and sing and rejoice together there,—

"Where all the ship's company meet,
Who sailed with the Savior beneath;
With shoutings each other to greet,
And triumph o'er sorrow and death."

THOMAS H. PEARNE.

MRS. SARAH L. PEARSON.

SARAH LUCINDA, daughter of Francis and Sarah Brewster, was born at Bellbrook, Greene County, Ohio, April 8, 1842. Reared in a home where the fires of devotion never went out, where family worship, godly admonition, and pious example had a wonderful and salutary influence on her mind and heart, she early became a follower of Christ and a worker in Sabbath-school and Church. In 1871 she was married to Rev. John Pearson, of the Cincinnati Conference, and found in the itinerancy a congenial field for her talents.

Of graceful and commanding presence, genial manners, clear intellect, and great energy, she soon made and always retained friends in every pastorate. She was peculiarly helpful to young people. Young girls found her a true and wise friend, and gladly confided to her their troubles, and accepted her counsels. When ready for Christian work, they were sure of safe guidance and enthusiastic co-operation in the pastor's wife. The Juvenile Missionary Societies at Mount Auburn, First Church, Urbana, and, still later, in the charges of the Hillsboro District, are greatly indebted to her for their organization and efficient management. In this department she had few equals. During the last two years of her husband's term as presiding elder, she was the district secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and in that time the membership and contributions were doubled.

As indicative of her interest in this work, and her devotion to it, we quote a few passages from her last report. She writes:

"Another year of opportunity has come and gone. Occupying 'Observation Point,' we gather up results, and learn wisdom from experience. The mass of the thought and the labor that has held the work steady, and caused it to advance, can never be called up again, nor appear in an annual report; but of it all the 'Heavenly Scribe' has taken note, and in the Great Day it will be found carefully credited with its gracious increase. Each humble worker, though now perchance unhonored and unknown, will then receive her own reward according to her labor."

"The most constant and laborious work has been done by ladies whose hands are overflowing with other toil, and have snatched from sleep or from needed rest the most of the time devoted to our cause. The money, too, has been saved by cents and nickels from daily needs, and only He who 'sat over against the treasury' knows how many widows cast in their mites with their prayers."

"May God enlist the hearts of hundreds of thousands of our Methodist women in this magnificent Christ-like work!

"Let us lay on the susceptible heart of childhood and youth the vast and thrilling thought, that the dear Christ himself wants to take them into partnership with himself in bringing light to dark minds, knowledge of God to those who know him not, salvation to myriads of lost souls, and cause the blessings of Christian civilization to come to two-thirds of the nations of the earth, which are now in the semi-savagery of heathenism.

"To bear a part in such work, and start the flow of such influences and cause them to sweep through all remaining time and out into boundless eternity, is a thought which should and must thrill with a holy enthusiasm all who really grasp it. . . . For two years I have been honored with the responsibilities of the district secretaryship. . . . I love the work; it has been a great blessing to me. I sincerely regret that I have not been more of a blessing to it."

In the Sunday-school she taught classes of both sexes, and in every instance gained a place in her scholars' hearts. She had a Bible-class of twenty-five young men in Hillsboro, and letters were received by her from several members of this class during her last illness. Her interest in missionary societies sprang from her love for their members and for those they sought to help. The needy near at hand, equally with those afar off, received her sympathy and assistance. Hers was a genuine love for humanity. But however blessed her influence elsewhere, she found her greatest usefulness at home. Congregations will never know their indebtedness to their pastors' wives. They can not learn how many happy thoughts first occurred to a feminine mind; they can not tell what modifications of plans were made at the suggestion of these home counselors. Neither do they know the plans entirely abandoned before announcement, because a woman's intuition saw that they were untimely. She leaves two children, Walter, aged thirteen, and Lucy, aged five years, who can ill spare such a mother; yet her counsels and prayers will be to them a precious memory. Her religious experience was seldom, if ever, ecstatic, but uniformly clear and satisfactory. During the early stages of her last illness there came a marked change. A baptism rested upon her which fused all the admirable qualities of her character into a saintliness that was extraordinary. Thenceforth she was "full of love and full of triumph every hour." After eleven weeks of agony and exhaustion, on Thursday morning, December 22, 1887, she fell asleep in Jesus.

Hundreds can adopt the sentiment of the familiar lines:

"Dearest sister, thou hast left us;
Here thy loss we deeply feel.
But 't is God that hath bereft us—
He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled;
Then in heaven with joy we'll greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed."

MRS. SARAH WAMBAUGH.

SARAH (SELLS) WAMBAUGH, who died at Ripley, O., July 27, 1888, was born at Columbus, April 17, 1826. Her father was Peter Sells, an early settler of Columbus and a soldier in the War of 1812. Her mother was Sarah Casey, daughter of William Casey, a Marietta pioneer of 1788, and is said to have been the first child born at Marietta. Mrs. Wambaugh was educated at Worthington Seminary, was married to Rev. A. B. Wambaugh, of the Ohio Conference, in 1844, and was pastor's wife in Columbus, Circleville, Milford, Ripley, Springfield, Cincinnati, Avondale, and Mt. Washington. Since her husband's death, in 1873, her home has been in Ripley, with her daughter, Mrs. Patterson, where she was highly esteemed and greatly beloved.

Sister Wambaugh was an attractive woman. Her features were regular, her complexion clear, her expression open and frank; her tastes were cultured, her manners refined, and her whole demeanor easy and elegant. The first acquaintance may have suggested that her manner was studied and fictitious, but those who knew her under many kinds and extreme degrees of care and anxieties found the composure and grace of her deportment inherent and genuine.

Hers was a beautiful character—not astonishing by an unusual development of any one part, but by the symmetrical completeness and balance of all of its parts. The intellectual nature was well trained and vigorous. Having had in her youth more than ordinary educational advantages, and possessing an active and industrious mind, she made constant additions to her early attainments. She sought good thoughts in good books, and, most of all, she searched for the divine thought in the Book of books.

But her intellectual development was not to that extreme that would render her useless in practical things. She was educated in common affairs, as well. Her home was a model for neatness and order. The good husband and servant of God, who went to heaven fifteen years before her, owed much of his success as a pastor to this good woman, who made his home a haven of rest, and its administration a recommendation to his pastorate. Love for books and study was not at the expense of home duties and motherly attentions.

There was a charm about her social nature. She was possessed of the happy faculty of making every one easy in her presence. You looked for no harsh or unseemly words from her lips; you were not in dread of any blunders she might make; you were not in fear that some luckless word would offend and mar the pleasure of the intercourse; you confided in her, for her heart was right. Her words were true and tender; her voice and face united to assure you that no unwelcome storm would break unexpectedly upon you; you felt no need of shelter. She not only won your heart, she kept it; and her presence was like a barrier to break and turn aside the swift currents of strife in the Church and in the community. Modest, retiring, and utterly void of self-appreciation, her worth was recognized by others, and she was constantly kept in places of honor and responsibility in the Church.

The impression of her life on the Church is blessed. In many homes in those places where her husband was pastor, has genuine sorrow come with the news of Sister Wambaugh's death. In many of these homes they will recall her kindly and helpful ministries. She is greatly missed in the Church at Ripley. She attended all the means of grace, and her voice in the services was a very familiar one. Her clear and decided testimony to the truth and power of the religion of Jesus will not soon be forgotten, and many will bear through their lives the memory of her loving invitation to come to Jesus, and in eternity will acknowledge her as instrumental in their salvation.

Her religion was recommended by its cheerfulness. If ever it was gloomy, its shadow reached to no other's path; if ever it was discouraged, no one knew it; if ever it doubted, it kept silent. Its most prominent feature was its sweetness. Care, bereavement, and sorrow entered largely into her earthly portion, but her religion absorbed and conquered them. And age itself, so often the destroyer of patience and charity, only perfected hers. Converted at the age of sixteen, taking the responsibilities of an itinerant's wife at eighteen, and bearing the double anxieties of home and family for fifteen years of widowhood, she developed an unusually beautiful and loyal spirit, which is the precious inheritance of her children, and an attestation of the all-sufficiency of grace.

Her last sickness was long continued—nearly four months, during which she endured with remarkable fortitude the severest suffering. Amid it all, her religion shone with splendor. Her soul was kept in great peace. Her thoughts were of Zion. She delighted all who visited her in her affliction by her bright face and cheerful conversation. Her strength failed, but her faith and her courtesy endured. Watched over and ministered to by her children, who put aside everything for weeks to give a loving service to their noble mother, and cheered by the presence and help of very many Christian friends, she went triumphantly down into and through the valley, matured and ready for the garner in heaven. How short, to her, must have been the step, and how easy the transfer, from the Church militant to the Church triumphant! J. P. PORTER.
